

Y.A.L.E. School
Performing Arts Center
Presents:

Meltdowns, Tantrums, and Threats:
Wrestling Back Control of Your Household

Presented by: Robert Naseef, Ph.D.

This parent training workshop by psychologist, author, and parent, Robert Naseef, Ph.D., will talk about the difference between meltdowns and tantrums and what to do when your child with special needs and extremely challenging behaviors is running the show. The stress on marriage and family life can be overwhelming, so take advantage of this opportunity to learn about effective coping strategies. Parents, guardians, family members, District Case Managers and those affected by Autism are welcome to this free workshop. Not appropriate for children.

Tuesday, March 26th, 2019

6:30pm - 8:30pm

Y.A.L.E. School Performing Arts Center
700 Marlton Pike Cherry Hill, NJ 08002

CEUs available for educators

To register, please go to yaleschool.com/event