January is Muslim Heritage Month in NJ

January has been designated as Muslim Heritage Month in New Jersey (link to the legislature’s joint resolution: https://pub.njleg.gov/Bills/2022/AJR/194_11.HTM)

Our students have made displays honoring Muslim Heritage in our MS libraries and the Evesham Township Library. These displays (MS display, MS display, Town Library display) highlight how Muslims have made significant contributions that shape our world, including notable achievements in philosophy, mathematics, astronomy, physics, chemistry, medicine, architecture, music, literature, and the arts. Also, the NJ Muslim Heritage Month Coalition (statewide organization responsible for creating this heritage month) is holding its South Jersey regional event for this month on Jan. 27 right here in Marlton—terrific chance for our community to experience this wonderful learning event: SJ Muslim Heritage Month Festival Invitation, 1- 5 pm, Indian Springs Country Club. Hope to see you there!
